

The Benefits of Tech in Senior Living

91%

of senior living communities reported that technology has improved the quality of care for their residents.

(Source: Senior Living Foresight, 2018)

Improved resident care

75%

of senior living communities reported that technology has helped reduce hospital readmissions and improve resident health outcomes

(Source: PointClickCare, 2019)

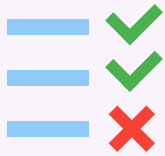

88%

of senior living communities reported that technology has improved staff-resident communication and increased resident engagement

(Source: A Place for Mom, 2020)

Increased efficiency

79%

of senior living communities reported that technology has reduced administrative workload and improved overall efficiency

(Source: PointClickCare, 2019)

56%

of senior living communities reported that technology has improved their ability to manage and track resident care

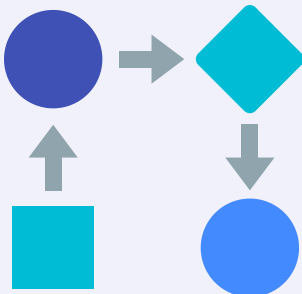

(Source: Senior Housing News, 2021)

66%

of senior living communities reported that technology has improved their ability to monitor and respond to resident emergencies

(Source: A Place for Mom, 2020)

65%

of senior living communities reported that technology has reduced overall operational costs

(Source: Senior Housing News, 2021)

Cost savings

78%

of senior living communities reported that technology has helped reduce staffing costs and improve staffing efficiency

(Source: PointClickCare, 2019)

68%

of senior living communities reported that technology has reduced the need for manual record-keeping and improved data management

(Source: A Place for Mom, 2020)